A COVID-19 kind of summer

The COVID-19 pandemic has affected holiday plans for Pharmacy students in many ways. Gone were the usual overseas summer school programmes and internship opportunities. While some took online courses to gain new learning experiences, others saw COVID-19 as an opportunity to give back to the nation. We asked 2 students to tell us more about their COVID-19 kind of summer.

e-POP'20: Same-same but different

Who said the summer break was quieter without a physical orientation for pharmacy and pharmaceutical science freshmen? The same spirit of the annual pharmacy orientation programme (POP) continued to kindle in cyberspace in this unique edition of e-POP! About 170 freshmen participated in 4 afternoons of fun-filled and informative programme and forged close-knitted friendships (read the related article in this issue to find out more!). They cannot wait to see each other when semester starts!
