PHARMCONNECT

From pharmacist to pharmacokineticist: Dr Tham (Class of '93) shares her journey

Ever wondered what it's like for a pharmacist to move from practice to research? We spoke to Dr Tham Lai San (Class of '93), who is the present Senior Director PK/PD at Eli Lilly and Company, to learn how her clinical experience as an intensive care unit (ICU) pharmacist led her to where she is today.

EASING BACK TO NORMALITY

With the easing of safe management measures, students can now work effectively for group tasks. Pictured here are three different Year 2 student teams conducting their pharmacokinetics experiment collaboratively during practical class. Staff also bonded through an in-person namecard holder making workshop organized by the Department welfare committee. We certainly look forward to re-connecting in-person with our alumni Pharmily in upcoming events.

Stay tuned for updates!
