“You can be whatever you want to be”

- Ms Farhana Farid, Class of '15

You may have heard of Ms Farhana Farid (Class of '15), the rising star in powerlifting who has several remarkable deadlift performances on national and world stages, with three amazing world records under her belt. She is the epitome of resilience, achieving what many would deem impossible, while juggling a job in pharmacy and coaching. We are proud and honoured to share her inspiring journey with all.

“There is no price tag for your health, go for Health T.A.G. Fair!”

In line with the nation's #HealthierSG strategy, NUS Pharmacy and NUS Pharmaceutical Society partnered to pitch for the above tagline in their inaugural NUS Pharmacy-led preventive health fair. The NUS team partnered with several organisations to organise the inaugural Health T.A.G. Fair on 4 September, with a reach of over 210 participants who responded to the call to “Test, Advise and Go!” Read on to find out what unfolded during the health fair.

Reconnecting with Pharmily one brick at a time

In August, we reunited with our Pharmily in person at the annual Kent Ridge Alumni Family Day, after 2 years of virtual activities. More than 40 alumni and their family members came together for a “Pixel Art with Bricks” workshop. Click in to see how their creativity transformed tiny bricks into beautiful pieces of pixel art.
